

Team Ghana depart for Rio 2016 Olympics, seen off at airport by GNPC

Group picture of Team Ghana and GNPC officials at the Kotoka International Airport on Sunday evening before their departure to Rio, Brazil

Ghana National Petroleum Corporation (GNPC) chief, Alex Mould led the dignitaries who showed up at the Kotoka International Airport on Sunday night to bid farewell and goodluck to Ghana's representatives to the 2016 Olympic Games which sets off in Rio, Brazil within a week.

GNPC CEO, Alex Mould was around to personally motivate the athletes to win laurels for Ghana in Rio

GNPC on Saturday held a cocktail send-off party for Team Ghana where they revealed the desire to support numerous sports disciplines in the hope that this country achieves success in future Olympics based on foundations to be laid henceforth.

The state owned company have paid for the travel and expenses of the entire Ghanaian contingent of 16 athletes and a number of officials who will fly the flag of Ghana at the 4-yearly competition.

Below are some few photos from the airport as Team Ghana led by Ghana Olympic Committee President, Prof. Francis Doodoo set out to Brazil on a mission to make Ghana proud:

Ghana's Chief de mission for Rio 2016 – Essilfie

Some of Ghana's female athletes relaxed for the battle to make the country proud in Brazil

Hon. Yamin – The former Sports Minister made a surprise show-up to wish Team Ghana well in Rio

Source : <http://adacommunityonline.com/2016/08/01/team-ghana-departs-for-rio-2016-olympics-seen-off-at-airport-by-gnpc-chiefs/>